

Washington University in St. Louis

Record

April 9, 2007 Save a Life

Photo by Joe Angeles

Save a Life

Nirmal Choradia, a sophomore biomedical engineering major in the School of Engineering & Applied Science, takes the driver's seat in the Save a Life drunk driving simulator April 2 in Mallinckrodt Student Center. The five-screen machine lets participants "drive" through virtual streets while simulating the experience of operating a car while intoxicated. Sponsored by the Student Health Advisory Committee, the event helped students learn the dangers of drunk driving.